Caution: Students may not be able to obtain as many credits as the student plans if the student does not have enough Japanese language proficiency (preferably JLPT N1 level) to take academic courses taught in Japanese. Note: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) We do not offer exchange program Senkasei-status at the doctorate level. Content and Objectives If you have no opportunity to use any language, you will not be able to use it. In addition, if you learn in classroom only the content focused on the language knowledge, your understanding of Japanese society and culture can be just superficial with stereotypes. Therefore, this program focuses on learning activities in which students decide a topic of interest in Japanese culture and society, as well as research, presentations, and review, so that you will have your own ideas and opinions and put them into words. You also communicate with Japanese supporters and are given assignments of surveys or interviews on campus. We aim at stimulating students’ new awareness about the language, culture, and Japanese society (or your own country) through sharing the learning outcomes cultivated from your study, as well as reviewing. 3. Course Components <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Levels: Mainly 3 levels (beginner, intermediate and advanced) ◆ Level Placement: will be decided based on students’ Japanese educational backgrounds. ◆ Campuses offered: Tama & Korakuen ◆ Course composition: Each course offered in two consecutive periods (ex. 1st & 2nd periods), students are required to register two classes as a set. ◆ Course load per semester: 200 minutes/week x 14 weeks/semester ◆ Credit(s) : 2 credits/semester *Only exchange students enrolled in the Faculty of Science and Engineering are permitted to take just one class per week which will be offered on the Korakuen Campus. In this case student earn 1 credit per semester.

Enjoy academic interaction opportunities to study with local students as well as degree-seeking international students. a. If pre-registration is needed international center provide information after the official acceptance letter is issued. Your study plan in the application form is very important, it will be considered when the Faculty/Graduate School decides your acceptance.
